Superintendent's Highlights

The year 1996-97 is seen as one of excitement and planned change. In June, the Board took a proactive step in committing the district to a Strategic Planning Process. The process began in July 1996 with an initial planning team consisting of a cross-section of individuals from the community and school district. Team members established the mission statement and set broad objectives and guiding principles for the Strategic Plan. The strategic plan will establish the focus for the next five years.

Guiding principles that will direct our programs include: the school as community; curriculum with coherence; climate for learning; and a commitment to character. Basic skill development, Personal responsibilities and American culture are basic curriculum themes that will be emphasized.

Ultimately, the aim is not just to build a better school, but above all, to build a better world for children. It is our deepest hope that not a single child will pass through the schoolhouse door unprepared to make a difference in this world.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1996-97 Goals	Progress
Facilities - Identify needs and establish priorities for maintenance/construction	Facilities committee was established and needs identified. Committee will make recommendations for facility improvement priorities and work toward the passing of levy.
Curriculum Development - develop locally developed curriculum guide	A rough draft of K-6 curriculum was developed for Math, Science, Language Arts, Social Studies, Health, and PE.
Commitment to Staff Development -	Parents/patrons and staff participated in several workshops during the year. Workshop topics include: Reading/Writing/ Spelling improvement and technology.
Establish Advisory Committees - committees will include members from PTA, Boosters, Board, Staff and Administration	Textbook/curriculum; budget; facilities; extra-curricular; calendar and policy Committees have been established.
